PDI World Group Hires Three New Designers

Minneapolis, MN, September 4, 2007 – Local architecture firm PDI World Group has three new designers. Lindsey Staum joined the firm last November as an intern while completing her coursework at the University of Minnesota. Two of her University colleagues, Jessah Thomas and Therese Hassett, came on board as interns in January. Their performance was impressive, so that, when they graduated in May (B.S. in Architecture) all three were hired as designers full time.
