

PDI Today

Growing our Business...

Our business continues to grow worldwide – and rapidly. Just this past week, we successfully concluded a series of meetings with the principals of the C. Group. This new international village complex has become a prominent part of the landscape near Seoul, and PDI has been awarded the construction document phase of work for their new Gymnasium.

PDI is also working on a new resort complex in Hanoi, Vietnam, as well as Wonju entrepreneur city planning in Korea.

...and Changing the Way we Do it.

The PDI Consortium concept is also growing worldwide – creating a global building industry network that will streamline and strengthen the way we all do business in the future. Here is our current roster:
